United Florida KKK	Samsula, Fla.
United Florida KKK	Tallahassee, Fla.
United Florida KKK	St. Marys, Ga.
United Florida KKK	Apopka, Fla.

The following discussion occurred at this meeting:

About the first hour of the meeting time was taken up with [REDACTED] causing some minor disturbance by saying that South Carolina had not been correctly notified of the last Stone Mountain meeting and that he felt that another meeting should be held on the usual Labor Day week end as it has been for the past two or three years. Although several members tried to explain that South Carolina had not been present at the meeting when the Stone Mountain Day was set up to the first week of July, [REDACTED] finally made a motion that Stone Mountain Day should be observed again on the Saturday following Labor Day. He said that this would help to get the right man elected as Governor of Georgia because it would show Klan power just before election day.

b7D

Most members felt that if this National Klan Day were to be held at this time that it would be a complete flop and [REDACTED] finally said that he was going to stop all discussion of the matter and call the motion "out of order."

[REDACTED] next brought up the fact that [REDACTED] had come up to South Carolina, and without first having given any notification to the Association of South Carolina Klans, had put on rallies and membership drives in and around the Spartanburg area. [REDACTED] did not become angry but stated that his men had held a board meeting in this area at this time which he usually does every few weeks and that it was held this time in the area of his Grand Dragon of South Carolina who is [REDACTED] of Spartanburg, South Carolina.

The Association of Georgia Klans said that [REDACTED] was also doing the same thing in their area, however [REDACTED] brushed off this with the statement that the notices of the meeting and rally to be held in the Savannah area on August 18 had only been printed two days before and that he brought copies with him to give to the Association of Georgia Klans and also every other Klan group that was present.

There was a long discussion regarding how the FBI can point some sort of telescopic mike towards a room where a secret meeting is being held and catch everything that is said on tape. [redacted] of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, apparently knows something about electronics and said that the best way to foil the FBI was to play a radio all the time a meeting was going on.

[redacted] of West Memphis, Tennessee, gave a long talk on how the FBI hounded him for about a year in regard to a bombing attempt in Little Rock, Arkansas. He stated that the FBI dropped the case rather than reveal how and where they got their information from in such cases.

[redacted] announced that there would be some special meetings at Albany, Georgia, on Labor Day. He said that there would be many klansmen in robes, especially those who are known klansmen, and that there would be many others in town without robes or identification. He said that he had not contacted the Chief of Police or Mayor of the city for permission to put on a speaking or other form of demonstration at this time.

South Carolina will be the site of the next National Klan Meeting, and [redacted] for this period, starting from this date until the end of the next meeting. [redacted] for this same period of time and will mail out notices of the time and place of the meeting.

Re: NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN

An open meeting for all Klansmen present at the Wakulla Motor Hotel, Wakulla Springs, Florida, was held on August 11, 1962, during which a general discussion was held by the group concerning the Rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, and the racial situation at Albany, Georgia. [redacted] advised that the Negroes want the Klan or any white person to create some violence in Albany, Georgia, so that they, the Negroes, can capitalize on this. [redacted] stated the Klan must be extremely cautious so that there will be no violence on their part in the Albany, Georgia, area.

Discussion was held as to ways that membership in the Klans could be increased and that every effort should be made to have all the different Klan groups work closer together.

AUGUST 12, 1962, SESSION

On Sunday morning, August 12, 1962, at Wakulla Motor Hotel, Wakulla Springs, Florida, the National Klan meeting was held.

[redacted] of the meeting was [redacted] of the United Florida Klans.

[redacted] arrived on Sunday and was appointed to fill the station of [redacted] for the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

There was no representation from the Dixie Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, nor was there any representation from the Confederate Klans.

The same persons were present as had been present at the meeting on the evening of August 11, 1962, with the exceptions of Mr. (FNU) [redacted] of Biloxi, Mississippi, [redacted]
[redacted]

The last four were not permitted to attend as each group was to have only a maximum of four persons in attendance.

A discussion was held concerning the Stone Mountain, Georgia, Rally held in July, 1962.

Re: NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN

The United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan announced that they planned to hold a United Klan Rally at Albany, Georgia, on Labor Day, September 3, 1962. All groups present were asked to help obtain a large attendance at this rally.

[] said that it is hard for known Klansmen to get permission to hold segregation meetings. He stated the group should get people who are not known as Klansmen to secure meeting places under other names. [] stated that only with God's help would they be able to keep their country from being mongrelized. [] stated that they must always be prepared for trouble and pulled a small revolver from his pocket.

[] advised that in their Klan group no one man has supreme authority and that their Grand Dragon's name is kept secret. He stated their group is not asked to participate in Klan activity such as the activity that was held at Stone Mountain and the public rally the United Klan had in Spartanburg, South Carolina, several weeks ago.

[] advised that all Klan groups should be notified of activities other Klans are planning in order that all groups may participate. It was agreed that all Klan leaders present exchange their mailing addresses with the other Klan leaders present and that in the future notices concerning any and all Klan activities such as a public Klan rally be sent to all the Klan leaders in order that as many Klan groups as possible may be able to participate.

JAMES R. VENABLE made a talk concerning secrecy and of informants within the Klan organization. VENABLE stated the FBI in questioning Klan members would try to pry information from them, but that the Klansmen could refuse to answer questions on the basis that the answers might incriminate them. VENABLE advised that the FBI knew what was said at a Klan meeting in Birmingham, Alabama, approximately a year ago before he, VENABLE, got back to Atlanta, Georgia.

A discussion was held concerning new electronic devices which the FBI and Police used in obtaining information.

It was suggested that in the future the members at the Klan meetings talk in a low voice with a radio playing at the same time.

b6
b7C
b7D

Re: NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN

JAMES R. VENABLE also had several recordings, which [redacted] had made. One recording dealt with what may be done concerning decisions of Federal Judges.

VENABLE claimed that other recordings will be made to expose people who are trying to tear down the American way of life.

[redacted] made a speech in which he told of his trial and how he had been cleared of attempting to bomb a Little Rock college on July 12, 1960, and spoke of an FBI undercover man who had been working as a segregationist to get information.

[redacted] advised that they had decided to use a screen to produce Klan flags. [redacted] explained the screen could be used many times and this would reduce the cost of manufacturing the Klan flags. [redacted] advised he would have more information concerning these flags at their next National Klan meeting.

It was decided that the next National Klan meeting will be held in South Carolina with [redacted]

The August 12, 1962, meeting began at approximately 10:00 A.M. Eastern Standard Time and was also conducted by [redacted] Approximately [redacted] persons were present at this meeting.

[redacted] of South Carolina proposed that another national Klan meeting be held at Stone Mountain, Georgia, and claimed his group was not officially notified of the Stone Mountain meeting held in July. [redacted] made a motion to this effect but the motion was not seconded. [redacted] appeared upset over this and a lengthy discussion was held with several persons speaking in opposition to such a meeting.

[redacted] again brought up the subject of his troubles in being charged with an attempted bombing in Arkansas. [redacted] both discussed the activities of MARTIN LUTHER KING and others in Albany, Georgia, but did not suggest any specific action or advocate any violence.

[redacted] stated it would not do any good to shoot KING or FBI informers. [redacted] stated it would be more effective if such persons completely disappeared and their bodies were never found.

[redacted] stated that when the FBI comes around they should be asked if they have a warrant and asked to leave if they did not actually have a warrant.

JAMES R. VENABLE of Atlanta, Georgia, stated there was no legal reason Klansmen had to cooperate with the FBI. VENABLE also told about the VFW at Stone Mountain, Georgia, refusing to let the Defensive Legion of Registered Americans, Inc., use their hall for the meeting held in July even though he had donated the land on which the VFW hall was built.

A delegate believed to be from Arkansas stated that segregationist leaders should be extremely careful because the "Communist Jews" are out to get them in every way possible. He stated they should be armed at all times, especially when traveling. A delegate from South Carolina requested the next NKKK meeting be held in that State. No specific date or place was set for this meeting. [redacted] was selected to be chairman of the next meeting and the leaders of each Klan were told to pick four delegates to attend.

[redacted] announced a gigantic Klan rally to be held at the B & M Truck Stop, Albany, Georgia, on Labor Day. [redacted] stated all Klans and Klanspeople were invited.

This meeting was attended by the same individuals who attended the August 11, 1962 meeting except for members of the UKA who were present.

UKA delegates were [redacted] JAMES R. VENABLE; [redacted]

[redacted] of the UKA was also present at the request of the chairman and acted as doorman.

Re Bureau airtel, 8/20/62 to Charlotte and Little Rock.

For information of Savannah, which office did not receive copy of referenced Bureau airtel, Charlotte was instructed to determine from [redacted] whether the "Razor Back Klans" referred to in the letterhead memo accompanying Charlotte airtel 8/16/62 referred to a new Klan-type organization in Arkansas and also instructed Little Rock to endeavor to also make such determination.

On 8/29/62, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that at the National KKK meeting in Wakulla Springs, Fla., on 8/12/62, a sheet of paper was passed around for the two top Klansmen representing each Klan organization present to sign in order that informant, who was [redacted] of the next NKKK meeting to be held in Columbia, S. C., would know who to notify when the date of the next meeting had been set. Informant stated that [redacted] Pine Bluff, Arkansas, and [redacted] Texarkana, Texas, both signed this sheet indicating their Klan organization as the "Razor Back Klans," and it was for this reason he so indicated their organization on this report. He stated the representatives of this organization were the same representatives who have previously attended NKKK meetings and that no mention was made during the meeting of it being a new organization or that there had been any official change in the name of the organization. He said it was his recollection that in past NKKK meetings, their organization has been referred to as the Association of Arkansas Klans but said he has nothing to refer to to confirm his recollection thereof.

A letter was received from [redacted] Razor Back Klans of Arkansas (Probably [redacted]), stating they were unable to attend this meeting, but inviting the National Ku Klux Klan to hold their next meeting in Arkansas. No one showed up from United Klans of America and there was no explanation for their failure to attend.

There was a lengthy discussion concerning integration of the University of Mississippi, but no decisions or policy were made. The opinion was expressed that the Federal Government would soon make everyone register their shotguns and rifles used for hunting. One of the persons present indicated they had gunsmiths in their group who could make them special guns they would not register. No specific names were mentioned.

There was a general discussion concerning politics and the opinion was generally expressed that President KENNEDY and his brother ROBERT KENNEDY are taking orders from the Pope in Rome and are trying to convert the United States to Catholicism.

Then, because of the way the country is being run, Russia and the Communists will probably take over the United States.

They were also dissatisfied with the Federal Bureau of Investigation because of the way that organization had acted in connection with integrating of public schools in Little Rock, Arkansas, and because they felt the FBI was partly responsible for the integration incident at Oxford, Miss. There was talk that J. EDGAR HOOVER would quit the FBI within a year, but the source was unable to learn any definite basis for this opinion.

At the meeting held on Sunday, October 14, 1962, there was a discussion concerning the Klan flag. [redacted] of the United Klans of America have the flag and were supposed to get a price for making this flag, but they failed to show up at the meeting. [redacted] was instructed to write them a letter and tell them to be sure to bring the flag and the information concerning prices duplicating the flag to the next meeting.

There was a letter from [redacted] Biloxi, Miss., Mississippi Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, stating they could not attend this meeting and will not attend until further notice due to a re-organization.

It was agreed that next time letters are sent to the various Klans announcing the national meeting of the National Ku Klux Klan, that persons receiving the letters will be asked to acknowledge that they have received the announcement of the meeting.

It was further agreed that no Klan or Klan group would openly endorse any political candidates in the future, but may endorse them in the name of the front organization used by the individual Klan groups.

There was some discussion of the burning of churches in south Georgia and one delegate, probably [redacted] said he had information that the churches were not burned by the Klan. There was no other information advanced as to who might have been responsible for the church burnings.

There was also a discussion concerning uniting all Klan groups under one head, but it was decided they could not do that. It was agreed that the temporary chairman appointed for the next meeting will be acting leader of all the Klans affiliated with the National Ku Klux Klan through the next meeting, when a new temporary chairman will be selected.

b6

A national password has been adopted "white man" and this password, to last for one year, will be used by all Klaverns, State organizations, and all national organizations affiliated with the National Ku Klux Klan.

It was also decided that a letter would be sent on the letterhead of the National Ku Klux Klan to Governor ROSS BARNETT of Mississippi and to [redacted] Texas congratulating them on the stand they took on the integration of the University of Mississippi.

The next meeting will be held some place in Georgia with the U. S. Klans acting as host Klan and [redacted] Attorney, Atlanta, Ga., was appointed [redacted] for the next meeting. [redacted]

The hope was expressed that the leaders of every Klan group affiliated with the National Ku Klux Klan will attend the next meeting.

[REDACTED]

ASSOCIATION OF GEORGIA KLANS

[REDACTED]

At the Saturday meeting, JAMES VENABLE stated he had spoken with [REDACTED] of the United Klans, and [REDACTED] said he would not be able to get to the meeting on Saturday, October 13, but might make it to the meeting on Sunday, October 14.

[REDACTED] spoke against the various Metro Plans of Government that have been set up in many cities, contending that this form of Government intends to have everything integrated as quickly as possible. [REDACTED] further stated that the FBI was getting good policemen to resign, and then getting them replaced by ex-GIs who have been trained as U. S. Marshals, especially trained to combat racial troubles, or in other words to fight for the Negroes.

[REDACTED] of Dixie Klans spoke in regard to Klaverns going underground and meeting on a different day of every week, and also at a different location to throw the FBI off from keeping track of them.

RE: NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN

[redacted] of Dixie Klans stated a law may be passed in the very near future to make it unlawful to own any firearms; also laws to force anyone who is in business to serve or wait on Negroes, including such services as barber shops and beauty parlors.

[redacted] suggested that if the Klan was to really get anywhere in the near future, they would have to resort to secret weapons, and that only a very few men had any to date, except perhaps [redacted]

On Sunday, October 14, 1962, the meeting began at 9:30 a.m. A motion was made by [redacted] and the motion was carried, that the Secretary write to [redacted] in regard to what had been done to get the National Klan flag into the process of manufacture. The Secretary is to write a report to the heads of each group as soon as possible, furnishing them with the prices of small and large flags.

A motion was made by JAMES VENABLE, seconded by [redacted] and carried, that the next Saturday night meeting should be open to all Grand Dragons, Imperial Wizards, etc. even if they are not delegates; and that efforts should be made to get more unity between Klansmen. A motion was made, but did not carry, that "the Klan" should not back any man for a political office unless it was through some front organization, and that no public press releases would be made. A motion was made by [redacted] that some individual be named Titular Head of the Klans, who would have no real power, but could be pointed to with pride as the ruler of all the Klans. This motion did not carry after much discussion.

[redacted] of United Florida Ku Klux Klan stated he was at Oxford, Mississippi, but could not even make any contacts, and could not get word back to Florida to see what was supposed to be done. [redacted] warned [redacted] to be careful what he talked about or brought up on the floor as it might be later considered a conspiracy. [redacted] said he had made several calls to various men in Mississippi on Sunday before the troops went in (apparently referring to September 30, 1962), and that one of the leading Senators of the state told him they did not want anyone to come into the state, but that they would let them know if they did want them.

A motion was made by [redacted] seconded by [redacted] and carried, that a password be issued which is to be given to every man of every Klan group so that all could visit with each other and be welcome in each other's Klaverns. The new password "Whiteman" was issued by [redacted] but is to be given only by word of mouth and never to be written down.

A motion was made that a resolution would be drawn up by [redacted] commending General Walker and Governor Barnett of Mississippi in connection with their stands in the integration matter at the University of Mississippi.

The next meeting will be held in the State of Georgia with JAMES VENABLE to be Chairman, and [redacted] [redacted] The time and place of meeting are to be decided on and word to be sent out by the Acting Secretary.

As the Bureau knows, the policy of the NKKK is to furnish very little notice as to the time and place of these meetings, and when such notices are received, if [redacted] is selected to attend as a delegate of the ASCK, he must be in a position to accept such designation immediately upon receipt of telephone notification from an official of the ASCK, or else there is the possibility some other delegate might be selected to replace him. In view of this situation, and in view of the present racial integration situation in the South and particularly in South Carolina, it is believed highly important both to the Bureau and the Charlotte Office that [redacted] be authorized to attend the next National KKK meeting in Florida if he is selected to attend as a delegate of the ASCK, even though the date and place thereof is not known at this time, and clearance cannot be obtained from the Office covering the site of the next meeting.

The Bureau is requested to approve informant's attendance at next proposed meeting in Florida and if such approval is granted, authority is requested to pay [redacted] expenses actually incurred in attending this meeting not to exceed [redacted] which should be sufficient to cover such expenses regardless where the meeting is held in Florida. This request is over and above regularly approved payments to this informant.

The Bureau is requested to expedite reply since the date of this meeting may be in the early part of January, 1963.

By separate airtel, the Bureau and interested offices are being advised of contemplated meeting in Florida in January, 1963.

ENCLOSURE

[REDACTED]

Those present were allowed to talk as long as they cared to on any subject. [REDACTED] of Mississippi talked at length to the effect they were taking care of things in Mississippi and did not have to worry about the law or law makers in the state. No one seemed to believe much of what he was saying and [REDACTED] of Florida "kidded" him about his stories. He said that the people of Mississippi did not believe anything that Look Magazine had printed about Governor BARNETT of Mississippi.

[REDACTED] of the Federated Klans stated they were not trying to build up their membership at the present time and would not until the time was ripe. He spoke at great length about the good old klan days when everyone was under one leader, and that the only way the klan could ever be really great again would be under one rule. He said he did not want to be the leader, only the teacher. He said that before long there would not be anyone who could give the higher oaths of klankraft to klansmen, because as far as he knew that there were only two men alive today who could give them and that one of them was himself. He did not name the other man.

[REDACTED] approved of the idea of unity and said he would be in favor of leadership under one man if such a man were available.

[REDACTED] of Florida said that one leader for the Klan would be right and that he should be an absolute dictator of the organization as in the old days. He further stated that writing letters to Senators and Congressmen could get so expensive with rising postal rates that it would "be just as cheap to buy bullets for sending messages on to Congressmen." He did not elaborate on what he meant by this statement.

[REDACTED] of South Carolina told about how his state was trying to set up the Majority Citizens League as a front for the Klan so they could back different men for political offices without anyone knowing the Klan was backing them. He also favors a three party ballot for the next coming election.

RE: NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN

[redacted] of Savannah, Georgia, stated that when the right man would show up to lead the Klan, everyone would know it and he would take his place as absolute ruler of all the Klans.

[redacted] wants everyone to write to their Senators and Representatives at least once each week and keep telling them what they want them to vote for or against. [redacted] feels that the Congressmen from Georgia "have sold their state down the river" and are traitors to their home people.

[redacted] stated the speeches were quite long and did not bring up any possible ways to change the things that the speakers found were wrong. The meeting lasted about four hours.

The meeting resumed the following day, Sunday, January 13, 1963. The persons previously listed were present at this meeting together with the following:

Two other individuals, whose names were not learned, were present as delegates from the Association of Georgia Klans.

Also present was [redacted] who had been invited to speak by [redacted] identified himself as an ex-State Senator from South Georgia and claims to be a klansman but did not name his Klan organization.

At this meeting [redacted] gave a long talk, telling that he receives information from various parts of the United States concerning "smut books" and who prints and sells them. He also stated that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is a subversive organization and that it was necessary to bring this up before the people of our country and to write to Congressmen concerning it.

JAMES VENABLE made the statement that he did not understand why representatives of the U. S. Klans were not present as he had sent them a notice.

[redacted] who stated he had been a Georgia Senator, told that he was defeated in the last election by the "Block Vote" of the Negroes in his district.

[redacted] spoke again several times, talking about the old Klan and what a great thing it was.

[redacted] stated that at times during the talking about the old days of the Klan [redacted] would both break down to such an extent they could not talk and had to wipe the tears out of their eyes.

[redacted] made a motion to elect [redacted] of the Public Relations Committee to hold office for one year to send information to all heads of Klan groups. This motion did not pass because [redacted] pointed out no man could be elected to office in the National Klan for a period longer than ninety days.

b7D

~~MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION~~
[redacted] of Biloxi Mississippi, was elected as the next National Chairman and [redacted] was elected [redacted] then appointed [redacted] as head of the Public Relations Committee until the time of the next meeting.

[redacted] of Florida said that he thought "The Klan" should infiltrate the Republican Party all over the South and send delegates to the next National Convention who would put up conservatives to run for the various offices. It was stated that [redacted] had been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, at the time of the riots at Oxford, Mississippi.

[redacted] gave everyone a book called "The Secret Government of the United States" which he said shows that the members of the "Council on Foreign Relations" runs this country.

RE: NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN

JAMES VENABLE read copies of letters he had sent to Governor BARNETT of Mississippi and [redacted] commending them for their stand on the integration of the University of Mississippi.

The January 13, 1963 session started at 9:30 a.m. with approximately [redacted] persons present. JAMES VENABLE of GA.
Atlanta acted as Chairman of the meeting. There was a roll

NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN, Also Known
As NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN;
NATIONAL MEETING, ATLANTA, GEORGIA,
JANUARY 12-13, 1963.

At the Saturday meeting, which commenced at 7:30 P.M., [] made a speech, stating that he had about one hundred men in the area of Biloxi, Mississippi, and that his men are on guard every night, in the event of any Negro uprising. He claimed about three thousand Negroes had left the State of Mississippi since, and as a result of, the [] affair" at Oxford, Mississippi. [] stated the Life Magazine article about Governor Ross Barnett of Mississippi was not true because he knows Governor Barnett personally.

[] spoke on the subject of all klans uniting under one head. He said the klans will not get anywhere until they are united and work in concert. He said he is tired of the idea that the klans must go underground and hide behind cover names such as "The Majority Citizens League" used by the Association of South Carolina Klans, and "Defensive Legion of Registered Americans" used by the national group.

There was a long discussion concerning this matter, but no motions were made or voted on.

[] spoke, suggesting they organize high school and college students to help combat the problems imposed on the South by the Federal Government over segregation.

At the meeting which convened at 9:00 A.M., Sunday, January 13, 1963, at the same place, [] started a discussion of the immoral books presently being sold on newsstands. The book "The Last Temptation of Christ" and a play "Around the Cherry Tree", being put on by the Methodist Church, were specifically identified as being immoral.

NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN, Also Known
As NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN;
NATIONAL MEETING, ATLANTA, GEORGIA,
JANUARY 12-13, 1963.

[redacted] gave a talk about keeping the whole blood and blood plasma of the various races separate in blood banks and hospitals. He said the Association of South Carolina Klans had almost gotten legislation passed in South Carolina, to require that whole blood and blood plasma be labeled as to race of donor. He said all klansmen in all states should fight to get similar laws passed in their states.

The American Legion was commended as an organization that was doing a fine job, and it was said that the Legion, particularly the 40 and 8 Organization, believed the same as the klan on segregation. It was suggested that klansmen approach members of the American Legion to try to get them into the klan.

James R. Venable read a copy of a letter he had written to Governor Ross Barnett of Mississippi and to [redacted] for a job well done in Mississippi.

A discussion arose concerning the 1964 presidential election, and it was generally agreed that the klan should ask Governor Ross Barnett of Mississippi to run for the Presidency as an independent or on the Constitutional Party ticket, to oppose President Kennedy and Governor Nelson Rockefeller.

[redacted] gave a talk in which he agreed that all klans should be united but that he did not believe anyone present was capable of bringing together and leading the united klans. He said that, when the right man came along, all klans would be united but, until then, they would stay as they are at present. His idea is that the head of the united klans, when one is appointed, should be responsible to a Board of Governors so no one man would get too powerful.

JANUARY 12-13, 1963.

There was a discussion of a new five-cent U. S. postage stamp that contains only a picture of a United States flag, and nowhere on the stamp does it say "United States of America".

It was the concensus of opinion that this stamp was unconstitutional because the cancelling of the stamp required the cancelling of the United States flag. Even a picture of the flag should not be misused. The individual klansmen should discuss this matter with their local postmaster.

The next national meeting will be held in Mississippi, supposedly Biloxi, Mississippi, and [redacted] Independent Klan of Mississippi, will be [redacted] of the next meeting. He will designate an [redacted]

A motion was passed that [redacted] should appoint a public relations committee to investigate the matters discussed at this national meeting, such as the immoral books, blood labeled as to race of donor, and such other matters as the committee members should develop in connection with their investigation, so that a short, organized, and educated discussion could be presented on each subject at the next national meeting. RE: NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN,

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that he was recently in Columbia, South Carolina; where [redacted] of the Association of South Carolina Klans. [redacted] stated he had attended a meeting between [redacted]

both members of the United Florida Ku Klux Klan and [redacted]

[redacted] of the Dixie Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated. Mims stated the reason for this meeting was to discuss the peaceful integration of Clemson University in South Carolina. It was mutually agreed at this meeting that the Ku Klux Klan had "lost face" in this integration and that some drastic action must be taken to keep the various klans from falling apart.

According to the source, individuals capable of taking drastic action would be [redacted] of Columbia, South Carolina, and (First Name Unknown) Horne of Conway County, South Carolina.

At the time the source met with Mims no definite plans had been made as to any drastic action planned for the future.

An article from the February 21, 1963, issue of the Washington Post and Times Herald indicates that the Greenville News on February 20, 1963, reported that efforts were being made to revive a renamed Ku Klux Klan "with table manners." The article mentioned that Mississippi Governor Ross Barnett might address an organizational meeting of the group. Governor Barnett said he had received no such speaking invitation.

The article further set forth leaders of the State Klan in South Carolina are trying to "don a cloak of respectability and make a comeback through a 'front organization' to be called the 'Majority Citizens League.'"

Bureau files show that at a state meeting of the Association of South Carolina Klans at West Columbia, South Carolina, in November, 1962, plans were made to reorganize the "Majority Citizens League" as a front for that klan organization. The Majority Citizens League consists of klansmen who are members of Klavern Number 335 of the Association of South Carolina Klans located in West Columbia, South Carolina.

The "Southland Standard", a paper published by the Majority Citizens League, describes that organization as a volunteer group of Caucasian patriots of America.

ACTION

The Savannah Office is closely following the Majority Citizens League along with its coverage of the Association of South Carolina Klans and the Bureau is being currently advised of the organization's activities. The Department has been furnished information concerning this front group.

A New Klan Reported Planned

GREENVILLE, S. C., Feb. 20 (UPI) — The Greenville News reported today that efforts were being made to revive a renamed Ku Klux Klan "with table manners." It said Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett might address an organizational meeting of the group.

In Jackson, Miss., Barnett said he had received no such speaking invitation. "I know nothing of this," he said.

When Barnett was first queried about the matter, he indicated he had received and accepted an invitation to appear here. However, it developed that Barnett thought the query concerned an address he has scheduled next month in Raleigh, N. C.

The News, in an editorial, said leaders of the state Klan, which has had little influence in South Carolina in recent years, are trying to "don a cloak of respectability and make a comeback through a 'front organization' to be called the 'Majority Citizens League.'"

The News said the movement, still in its beginning stages, has roots in Columbia and would be statewide. It said the revival "could be but, hatred and violence which is abhorrent to all but a tiny minority of South Carolinians."

[redacted] advised as follows, on April 11,

The national meeting of the National Ku Klux Klan was held at Biloxi, Mississippi, on April 6 and 7, 1963, in room 301 of the Riviera Hotel.

[redacted] served as presiding officer but the meeting was poorly organized and he was mainly calling on the various delegates in attendance for their comments. Most of the delegates gave brief discussions on how happy they were to be in a white man's state for this meeting, and they mentioned a few integration problems they had in their home areas.

[redacted] of the Federated Klan, Atlanta, Georgia, gave a short talk, suggesting that, after the meeting, the delegates give some thought as to how they could consolidate all the klans, and they would discuss the matter at the meeting the following day.

The Sunday meeting started at 9:30 A.M., April 7, 1963, and [redacted] announced that [redacted] of the Dixie Klans, had obtained the prices for the klan flag from [redacted] of the United Klans of America, Inc., and would be present at the next meeting to give the prices on the available sizes of the klan flag.

There was a general discussion concerning segregation problems in the South and mainly those at Greenwood, Mississippi, at the present time, but no plans or policies were made, other than for each klan to continue to fight segregation in their own localities because each locality is different and its problems are different.

[redacted], Jacksonville, Florida, said the Constitutional Party was holding a meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana, the same week-end, and that they were planning to ask Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina to run for President on the Constitutional Party ticket at the next election. All klansmen were urged to support Thurmond and the Constitutional Party ticket. DOB: 12/5/1902 POB: Edgefield, SC

[redacted] who ran as a write-in candidate for Governor of the State of Georgia during the last gubernatorial election in Georgia, was observed in Biloxi, Mississippi, after the meeting of the National Ku Klux Klan, and he confirmed that such a meeting was held in New Orleans, and that they are planning to ask Senator Thurmond to run for President on the Constitutional Party ticket.

[redacted] proposed that [redacted] be selected to contact all klan organizations in the United States, no matter how small, and ask each group to send three delegates, one of which would be the current leader of the group, to meet at some central location, in the near future, as a committee to discuss the possibility of merging all klan-type organizations into one big klan based on the original constitution and Kloran of the Ku Klux Klan. This committee will also discuss the manner of merging all klans, the administration, financing, etc., and will then take the possible klan consolidation plans back to their own group for discussion and possible ratification.

[redacted] was selected as this chairman. No committee was selected to help him bring these delegates together, and no money was appropriated for this purpose.

[redacted]
[redacted] were appointed as a committee to make arrangements for a National Klan Day celebration at the pasture [redacted] at Stone Mountain, Georgia, the Saturday before Labor Day.

The meeting was adjourned about 12:50 P.M., Sunday, April 7, 1963, and the delegates were given a free meal at the bus station restaurant before leaving for home.

[redacted] Shreveport, Louisiana, was selected as [redacted] of the next national meeting which will be held in Louisiana.

NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN
National Meeting, Biloxi,
Mississippi, April 6-7, 1963
RACIAL MATTERS

A Confidential Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information on April 9, 1963, concerning captioned matter:

A national meeting of the National Ku Klux Klan (NKKK) was held in the ballroom of the Riviera Hotel, Biloxi, Mississippi, on Saturday, April 6, and Sunday, April 7, 1963.

b6
b7C
b7D

The meeting commenced at approximately 7:30 p.m. on Saturday night, April 6, 1963, presided over by [redacted] of the Mississippi Klan.

This meeting was rather an informal meeting, at which all of the delegates introduced themselves and each delegate who wished to do so made some remarks about the progress of the particular klan group which he represented. There were approximately 25 delegates present at this meeting.

Remarks made by some of the delegates at this meeting were as follows:

[redacted] of Florida
Klans stated he had an idea as to how the klan could influence the winning of the next Presidential election. He stated all of the Southern States have few Republican voters and that if the various klans would elect their own members as delegates to the next Republican Convention, they could more or less choose the Republican nominee for President.

[redacted] from Atlanta, Georgia, who was [redacted] of the U. S. Klans, KKKK, Inc., and also [redacted] for the United Klans of America, Inc., KKKK (UKA, KKKK), made a statement to the effect that the situation that exists today is no longer a battle of ballots, but bullets. The klan is going to have to engage in violence.

[redacted] ^{member} of the U. S. Klans, and [redacted] of the Association of Georgia Klans (AGK) made statements which in effect agreed with those made by [redacted]

[redacted] from Georgia, [redacted] of the Federated Klan, made comments to the effect that all klan groups should unite and that although each organization was doing some good work, he felt that with a central head and united, the organizations could accomplish much more.

[redacted] representing the Louisiana Klan, advised he was [redacted] in a Louisiana town. He stated that he [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] of Mississippi Klan, told of racial activities in Biloxi, Mississippi, approximately [redacted] years ago. He related there was a race riot in the town because a white serviceman, accompanied by a Negro serviceman, came down on the beach and the Negro was knocked in the head. He related that several were injured and three Negroes killed. [redacted] related generally how he directed activities on this occasion and he also related how he and "his boys" had run a number of Negroes out of town by threats.

Memorandum
[redacted] of the United Klans of America from Mableton, Georgia, showed slides of the United Klans' imperial offices located in the Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

This first meeting adjourned at approximately 11:15 p.m.

On Sunday, April 7, 1963, the second meeting, which was held in the ballroom of the Riviera Hotel, Biloxi, Mississippi, did not get started until approximately 10:00 a.m.

[redacted] again presided at this meeting and again the delegates were introduced and the organizations that they represented were announced. This introduction of delegates was for voting purposes. Approximately [redacted] delegates were present.

b6
b7D

[redacted] of the Federated Klan, made a motion to the effect that each representative of the klan groups present should contact the leader of his group, if he were not the leader, and then discuss with all members of the organization, a plan to elect three representatives from each organization to attend a meeting at a future date for the purpose of voting on whether or not all the klan organizations should unite under one organization.

A very lengthy discussion followed this motion and when the motion was voted on, the motion was passed unanimously for delegates to return to their organizations and discuss a plan to elect the representatives for a meeting to vote on whether or not the klans should unite.

[redacted] of the Association of Florida Klans explained again his plan to elect klan members as delegates to the Republican National Convention. It was agreed by those present that they would present this matter to their local groups for consideration.

[redacted] of Tennessee, representing the UKA, KKKK, made a motion that the annual meeting of all the klans be again held at Stone Mountain, Georgia, and that the meeting be held on JAMES A. VENABLE'S farm, as it had been held last year. He suggested that the members not go up on Stone Mountain without permission. This motion passed and the date for the meeting was set for a Saturday night over the Labor Day weekend.

[redacted] invited this group to meet on the next occasion in Georgia; [redacted] invited the group to meet in Louisiana; [redacted] invited the group to meet in Tennessee. A vote was held and the majority voted to meet in Louisiana. The next meeting will be held within the next 8 - 12 weeks; however, the host for the meeting sets the exact date and selects the town in which to meet. The date and town will not be known until invitations are extended by [redacted]

b6
b7D

Source stated there was no discussion of the racial situation in Greenwood, Mississippi, or elsewhere and that no mention was made at this meeting concerning any plans to hold any demonstrations in protest of the integration efforts in any location. No acts of violence were proposed from the floor of the meeting in this connection.

The second meeting was adjourned at approximately 1:00 p.m.

Among those in attendance at this convention were:

First session got underway with each person present introducing himself and making a talk. Some of the talks were very short and others were very long.

G.A. MISS [redacted] traced the history of the Ku Klux Klan from its inception shortly after the Civil War up until the present time. He told about the Second Degree of Klancraft and claimed to be the only living person qualified to administer this Degree. He urged that all Klan groups unite into one organization under a strong leader who would follow the principles of the old Ku Klux Klan.

G.A. MISS JAMES R. VENABLE stated that he was affiliated with three Klan groups. He named these groups as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan; U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.; and Federated Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. VENABLE made a scathing attack on the United Nations and predicted that the United Nations will be a cause for the Communist take-over of the United States.

NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN

[redacted] made a talk on what he claimed to be the unusual powers which Congress has given President KENNEDY. He said that under the Civil Defense Act President KENNEDY could take over the United States as a dictator.

FLA. MISS. [redacted] told of his arrest at the University of Mississippi on September 30, 1962. He said he was picked up outside of Oxford, Mississippi, by soldiers and questioned a number of hours before he was released. He claimed he was treated cruelly by the soldiers and forced to walk a great distance in the rain to return to his car after he had been released.

MISS. [redacted] talked about a friend of his in the Shreveport, Louisiana, area, who was allegedly questioned by FBI Agents in connection with racial violence. He said that these Agents attempted in every way to intimidate his friend and he cited this as an example of the loss of individual liberty.

The Saturday session ended at approximately 12:30 a.m., on April 7, 1963.

The Sunday session started at about 9:30 a.m., on April 7, 1963. It too was held on the Third Floor room of the Riviera Hotel.

There were approximately [redacted] persons present for the Sunday session including those who were present at the Saturday session.

[redacted] of Shreveport, Louisiana, was elected [redacted] of the next meeting, which will be held in Louisiana, probably in Shreveport.

The group decided that the Saturday before Labor Day, 1963, will be designated as National Klan Day and an all-day celebration will be held in [redacted] at Stone Mountain, Georgia.

A committee consisting of [redacted] [redacted] was appointed to handle arrangements for National Klan Day. This committee will also try to make arrangements for the burning of a cross on Stone Mountain.

[redacted] made another long speech urging unity of all Klan groups.

JAMES R. VENABLE was appointed Chairman of a committee whose purpose is to seek unity of all Klan groups.

NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN

It was decided that VENABLE will invite to a meeting three leaders of each Klan group known to be in existence in the United States. A plan for unity will be explained to these delegates and they in turn will return to their Klan groups and explain the plan to them. Those Klan groups who agree to the unity plan will be united into one Klan group. No name was suggested for the united group nor was a leader selected, however, [redacted] stated that in his opinion there is only one man capable of leading a United Klan movement. He indicated JAMES R. VENABLE was this man.

JAMES R. VENABLE made another long talk during which he strongly criticized members of Congress for giving President KENNEDY the power he has. He said that the only way to convince members of Congress to return power to the people would be to "turn up the toes" of a few Congressmen. He did not explain this statement or elaborate.

[redacted] made another long speech in which he said that the Jews are behind integration efforts by Negroes in the South.

FOUNDED 9-6 [redacted] exhibited a copy of a magazine entitled, "The Cross and The Flag." This magazine had a notation on the cover stating that it was founded by GERALD L. K. SMITH. [redacted] said that all those interested in the truth about who really controls the United States should read "The Cross and The Flag." u.s.

The Sunday session ended at about 1:00 p.m., April 7, 1963.
